

THE EXIT DECK

47 SLIDES

ONE $92M

EXIT

The 9 sections that sold AutoDS to Fiverr,
and what each one has to do.

THE ARCHITECTURE

The 9-section spine

- 01 Executive Summary
- 02 Industry
- 03 Solutions & Technology
- 04 Architecture
- 05 Competitive Landscape
- 06 Customers & Marketing
- 07 Future Growth Drivers
- 08 Operations & Transaction
- 09 Financials

Financials come last on purpose.

[01]

Executive Summary

The whole business in 8 slides. A buyer should be 70% convinced before page 12.

[02]

Industry

Third-party sources only. Your credibility on every later slide borrows from this one.

[03]

Solutions & Technology

What the product does, shown as jobs done for the customer. Real screenshots only.

[04]

Architecture

One look that says this scales. Volume numbers are receipts; claims are cheap.

[05]

Competitive Landscape

Name real competitors. An honest matrix survives diligence; an inflated one dies there.

[06]

Customers & Marketing

The growth engine, then the unit economics. This is where good deals become great ones.

[07]

Future Growth Drivers

This section is what the buyer's money buys. Write it as their plan, not yours.

[08]

Operations & Transaction

The company behind the product. Boring is the goal, every detail here is one less diligence question.

[09]

Financials

By now every number was earned by an earlier slide. This is just the scoreboard.

Take the structure.
Fill in your numbers.
Send it.

The full 47-slide template is in the comments.

I'll take this deck apart section by section here over the next few weeks.