

THE EXIT DECK

47 SLIDES

ONE $92M

EXIT

The presentation structure that sold AutoDS to Fiverr.

Fill in your numbers. Get buyer-ready.

SWIPE

The 9-section spine

Financials come last. The first eight sections earn the right to show them.

[01]

Executive Summary

The whole business in 8 slides. A buyer should be 70% convinced before page 12.

THE EXIT DECK

[02]

Industry

Third-party sources only. Your credibility on every later slide borrows from this one.

THE EXIT DECK

[03]

Solutions & Technology

What the product does, shown as jobs done for the customer. Real screenshots only.

THE EXIT DECK

[04]

Architecture

One look that says 'this scales'. Volume numbers are receipts; claims are cheap.

THE EXIT DECK

[05]

Competitive Landscape

Name real competitors. An honest matrix survives diligence; an inflated one dies there.

THE EXIT DECK

[06]

Customers & Marketing

The growth engine, then the unit economics. This is where good deals become great ones.

THE EXIT DECK

[07]

Future Growth Drivers

This section is what the buyer's money buys. Write it as their plan, not yours.

THE EXIT DECK

[08]

Operations & Transaction

The company behind the product. Boring is the goal - every detail here is one less diligence question.

THE EXIT DECK

[09]

Financials

By now every number was earned by an earlier slide. This is just the scoreboard.
